Dark Lipsticks DOs and DONTs

We have to admit, lipstick has been a must-have beauty product in our daily lives. If you love to experiment with dark lipstick, here's how to try!

DONTs

- Go gothic

Unless you are a Yves Saint Laurent model, it's best to keep gothic lipstick on the runway. The dramatic look may not be suitable off the catwalk. Remember, vampy is different from vampire!

- Color outside the line

The bad news about dark lipstick is that it would be a big No to draw line outside your lipline. It creates a comical effect rather than being fab. A beauty specialists recommends you to rim your lips with Q tip already dipped in foundation. It helps the dark colors stay put!

- Forget the teeth check

Do not forget to check your teeth before you hit the street. It is hard not to get your teeth stained with dark lipstick. So before you flash your smile, check the mirror before you pose, especially for close ups!

- Make up overdosed
It's so easy to apply thick foundation, sharp brows and bold blush on but is it necessary? Dark lipstick should be the toughest color that stands out without applying too much make up.

DOs

- Let the color talk
It's ideal to make the lipstick as a highlight of your makeup. Try to make the attention focuses on your lips by pulling your hair back –creating ponytail – or keep the blush toned down. Dramatic dark lipstick can make your simple look, fabulous. It gives a cool contrast to your complexion.
- Pair it with bold eye brows
A well groomed full brows are great complement to your berry colored lipstick. This is a way to opt for classic beauty effortlessly!
- Go super dark
Especially if you have deep skin tone, the dark lipstick can become a highlight of your neutral makeup. Put on the false lashes and create a regal look of the day.

- Compliment it with black mascara
Mascara can create a big impact to the overall look. It makes the eyes talk! Black mascara offers less intense make up that tones down the dark shade lips because they create a balance to your look.
